Dear Mr. Carpenter:

We are pleased to inform you that your application for admission to Brooklyn Law School has been approved. We look forward to welcoming you to our Law School.

To reserve a place for you in our Fall, 1979 Entering Class, we require you to remit a check or money order, payable to Brooklyn Law School, in the amount of $110.00. This payment, which includes a tuition deposit of $100.00 and a matriculation fee of $10.00, must be made no later than April 1, 1979. Simply complete and return the enclosed deposit and fee payment record form, with your remittance, in our pre-addressed envelope. The payment will be applied against your tuition and fee charges for the first term if you enroll.

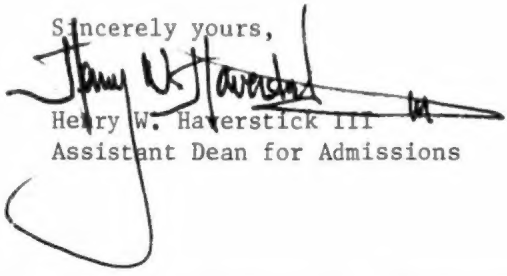

If the deposit and fee are not paid by April 1, 1979, your place in our first year class may be forfeited. If, however, you make a deposit on tuition to Brooklyn Law School for the Fall, 1979 Semester and request return of the deposit in writing by April 1, 1979, we shall return the deposit to you within thirty days of receipt of your request. The matriculation fee, in any event, is non-refundable.

In the beginning of March you will receive an invitation from our Orientation Committee to attend a special program designed to better acquaint you with the Law School. During that program, which will be held on an afternoon in the last week of March, you will have an opportunity to meet and talk with students, faculty and members of our administration.

Registration for the Fall, 1979 Semester will be conducted in June. Around the first of June, we will mail you information regarding our registration procedures and requirements.

Please accept our congratulations and best wishes for success as you embark upon the study of law.

Sincerely yours,

Henry W. Haverstick III
Assistant Dean for Admissions

Dear Ms. Printz:

We were very happy to meet with you on your visit to our offices. You made a very favorable impression on all of the people you met.

However, one of the unfortunate aspects about interviewing a large group is that there are not enough positions available to permit us to extend invitations to all of the qualified people whom we see. We have reviewed our position for the coming year and regret that we shall not be in a position to extend an offer to you.

Best wishes for the future.

Very truly yours,

J. Kelley Nevling, Jr.

Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

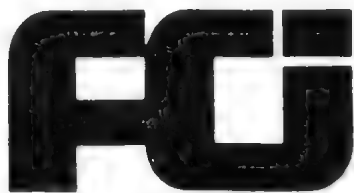

For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crost the bar.

Alfred Lord Tennyson, 1889

Everything a bar review should be

SMH is chosen time and again over other preparation programs — and now there is even more reason to decide on SMH. Here are a few major points for consideration:

SMH Texts — The foundation for our review programs — the most lucid and thorough review texts available; not just an outline.

Faculty — Professors Smith, McLaughlin, and Hart have 17 years of Bar Review lecturing experience. Can't be compared or matched. Lectures are provided by selected faculty in each SMH jurisdiction Lecture Series — Just the beginning of our coverage — emphasizes, reinforces and clarifies the substantive material.

Intensive Review — The SMH difference — practice on questions is the key to SMH instruction — teaching students how to handle information — not just to absorb it. Promotes efficient use of time by revealing students' weak subjects

Testing — SMH provides its students with diagnostic testing and practice under exam conditions; including complete coverage of the most recently released Multistate Exam

Ethics Examination — Preparation available to all course registrants in jurisdictions where exam is given

Course Discounts — Available in all SMH jurisdictions until published deadlines

Deposit Reciprocity — All deposits placed with SMH may be transferred in full to any SMH jurisdiction without penalty of any kind

Contact our office if you are interested in being an SMH campus representative.

As you can see, the SMH methodology has a number of distinct advantages. If you're familiar with our hard-earned reputation you know SMH isn't just more — it's better.
